HOLE IN ONE ALERT!

JOHANN JANSE VAN RENSBURG

Whilst this might have been a fun round of Saturday golf for most of our golfers, it was an extra special round for our dearest Club manager, Johann Janse van Rensburg as he scored a perfect ace on Hole 5 during the Ten Cup Series competition.

This is Johann's 2nd hole in one and it is truly well deserved! His first was achieved at Standerton Country Club in 2021.

Johann teed off with a 6 iron and he says this was his first good iron shot of the day. The ball pitched just over the bunker, took a single bounce, and rolled directly into the hole! An exhilarating moment for Johann and his playing partners as they witnessed the ball disappear into the hole. Congrats Johann! We are super proud of you and your wonderful achievement!

CECILY MCKENZIE TROPHY

HELD AT HARDING 21st & 22nd February 2026

HISTORY :

Neil McKenzie was a founder of PSCC and his son Jon Jon in the 1940's donated a Trophy for the men golfers to be contested annually by smaller clubs on the Lower South Coast and adjacent interior. In the 1950's Cecily, his wife, decided that a similar competition be played amongst the women golfers and a Trophy was also donated. Played annually in Feb / March, alternating between Inland and Lower South Coast Clubs – 2 day event played over a weekend.

FORMAT: First Day Betterball, Second Day Greensomes.

Harding Golf Club did a super job of hosting this year's tournament keeping the ladies well fed and watered. The course was in great condition, the food delicious and the members, male and female alike, worked like trojans to ensure an extremely successful event. There were 48 players in total which included ladies from Harding, Port Shepstone, Port Edward, Southbroom, Margate, Matatiele, Kokstad, Underberg. There was a 3 way count out on 74 points. Trophy winners were Sharon van Wyk & Lizelle Viviers from Matatiele with Mercia Goldswain & Marianne Fick from Margate in second place followed by Jolande Pieterse & Alta Kriegler from Southbroom in 3rd position.

Port Shepstone Country Club represented by (L to R) Ilse Steyn, Jen Hulley, Cecelia Verster, Debi Stewart, Annie Creane & Yzelle Greyling.
